TA YA Electric Wire & Cable Co., Ltd.
Procurement Policy

1. Suppliers whose products, raw materials, or equipment have obtained environmental labels, energy-saving labels, carbon labels, carbon reduction labels, water-saving labels, green building material labels, ENERGY STAR labels, or other certifications issued by domestic or international governmental or official organizations shall be given priority in procurement.

2. Suppliers that have obtained third-party certifications or verification statements for ISO 14001 Environmental Management Systems, ISO 50001 Energy Management Systems, ISO 14064-1 Greenhouse Gas Inventories, ISO 14067 Carbon Footprint Verification, IATF 16949, or other relevant management systems shall be given priority in procurement. Priority shall also be given to suppliers that implement measures related to energy conservation, carbon reduction, water conservation, circular economy practices, or the use of recycled materials.

3. Minerals sourced from conflict-affected areas are prohibited from use in purchased raw materials.

4. Suppliers shall comply with Ta Ya's Supplier Code of Conduct and implement requirements relating to labor and human rights, health and safety, environmental protection, and business ethics. Where a supplier is found to have committed a material violation and is unwilling to cooperate in implementing corrective actions, Ta Ya may consider terminating the business relationship.

5. Suppliers providing HSF products for enameled wire and triple-insulated wire shall, in accordance with Ta Ya's requirements, provide products that comply with applicable hazardous substance-free requirements, including SONY SS-00259 and other relevant standards.

6. Suppliers shall provide prior notification of any changes to raw materials or production design. Manufacturing or delivery may proceed only after approval has been obtained from the relevant departments.

7. Ta Ya's Confidentiality Undertaking shall be attached to purchase orders. Unless the supplier raises an objection, confirmation and return of the purchase order or issuance of an invoice shall be deemed acceptance of Ta Ya's confidentiality terms.
